MARCHING OFF THE MAP

Featured Speaker:
Andrew McPeak

Education today is changing. Classrooms are shifting to become more relevant to the needs of students. This session challenges parents to not only pioneer new territory, but also offers what direction is most strategic and how to lead the way into new territory.

From decades of research and hands-on experience, this Marching Off the Map event provides a collation of insightful and practical content that will help parents:

- Inspire students to own their education and their future
  - Lead students from an attitude of apathy to one of passion through metacognition
  - Enable students to push back from the constant digital distractions and practice mindfulness
  - Raise kids who make healthy progress, both emotionally and mentally, through their teenage years
  - Give students the tools to handle the complexities of an ever-changing world
  - Understand and practically apply the latest research on Generation Z

Marching Off the Map gives parents, teachers, and others who work with youth a manual for understanding and practicing the leadership kids so desperately need to mature in a healthy fashion.

Andrew McPeak
Vice President of Content | Growing Leaders
Content Developer and Speaker

Andrew is a millennial speaker and content developer with Growing Leaders. His experiences as both a presenter and curriculum designer have led him to become well versed in communicating to and about the next generation. In his role as the Vice President of Content, he works closely with schools, universities, companies and sports teams on implementing Habitudes as a tool to teach life and leadership skills. This experience enables him to help leaders understand how to craft their message in a way that best connects with today's student.

Most notably Andrew is a co-author alongside Dr. Tim Elmore on their latest book – Marching Off The Map. He and Dr. Elmore will be releasing their newest book on Generation Z in July 2019.
